Temporary Residence Permit I Process through External Service Providers

1st stage

Employee eligibility

The employer finds a candidate and determines whether they are eligible for a Temporary residence permit (TRP).

Eligibility criteria:

- Direct employment at a company registered in Lithuania
- The employment period in Lithuania is at least
- The employee must meet at least one of these requirements:
- · Have a proof of qualification (e.g. a certificate from an educational institution)
- Have at least one year of relevant work experience during the last five years.
- Will receive a monthly salary which is equal or higher than the average monthly salary at the company in the last calendar year.

A decision of the Employment Service regarding demand for the employee's qualifications is needed in case the profession is not included in the high-demand profession list or the relevant quota is exhausted.

In such case, the employer submits the documents to the Employment Service. The decision is then directly forwarded to the Migration Department.

The employer has registered the vacancy with the Employment Service at least 5 business days ago.

Application process

The application process through External Service Providers may take up to 90 days. The process has three steps: first, the employee submits the application online; then, the employee books and attends an appointment at the local application centre.

The application processing fee is €160.

Step 1

The employee submits the application online via MIGRIS and uploads all the necessary documents to the system.

Step 2

After submitting the application, the employee books an appointment at the local application centre on the VFS Global website.

Step 3

At the application centre, the employee submits all the necessary document originals and biometric data, and pays the service fee.

The VFS service fee ranges from €30 to €120 depending on the employee's country of origin and must be paid in person.

The employee may also be required to attend a mandatory online interview with a specialist from the Migration Department.
